

At Perk Kafe, Arie Marie Mikael Dalleis exhibited great reliability and attention to detail. Often times, they would take the initiative to further develop and improve the company's processes and procedures. Additionally, Arie is adept at finding existing/potential issues and will meticulously present suitable solutions for the team to act upon. Arie Marie consistently displays a strong work ethic and a relentless dedication to complete tasks flawlessly. I would recommend Arie for a position in any field of work and am confident they would be able to succeed in any type of environment.
